I'll get back with you next week. I need to talk to higher authority within our company regarding that details.

Hi Sonnie,

When we talked a few weeks ago I thought I understood that Elk Hills Power was still the owner, but now it seems it is California Resources? There is an EPA form (7520-7) but I think i need clarification of the ownership first. Can you get a something written that explains the structure, even if it is in draft, and maybe we can run it by our respective attorneys for better guidance.

Regards,

Michele

Michele,

Is there a form that we need to submit to notify you that the primary owner of Elk Hills Power, LLC has changed to California Resources Corporation?

Our facility name is still the same Elk Hills Power, LLC. The owner of the company has changed from Occidental Energy Ventures Corporation to California Resources Corporation.
